MEX TROUBLE GETTING ACUTE

Carranza Flees From Mexico City to Another Town For Safety, Account of Revolutionary Outbreaks—U. S. Will Send Ultimatum—Spain Breaks With Russia.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 28.—Reports were received here today from the border to the effect that fighting had broken out in Mexico City between the Obregon and Carranza factions.

Carranza is reported to have fled to Queretaro. General Pablo Gonzales is reported to be leading the Carranza troops.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Although further investigation of facts will be made, the American government has no intention of receding from its position in the Jenkins case, administration officials declared today. The government, they said, is prepared for "the next step," which may take the form of an ultimatum to the Mexican government.

MORE WIND STORM DAMAGE REPORTED

CROCKETT, Nov. 28.—An estimate of the storm damage of the past forty-eight hours is being made today. The high wind ripped off a portion of the top of the big oil tanks of the California and Hawaiian sugar refinery here. Several of the windows in the big refinery were shattered by the gale. The wind ripped off a big section of the roof of the Grangers Warehouse at Port Costa. Fire, which started on the hills above the Port Costa brickworks threatened a number of homes for a time.

ANOTHER AMERICAN KILLED BY MEXICANS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—James Wallace, American citizen, was shot and killed by Carranzista soldiers near Tampico last Wednesday.

The State Department today was advised of the killing and immediately ordered a thorough investigation.

Details of this latest outrage were lacking, but administration officials did not hesitate to characterize it as "another of the last straw" in the chain of "aggravated" incidents which has occupied the attention of the State Department for several months.

The case of Mrs. Maudie H. Madden of San Diego versus Joseph M. Madden of Richmond, in which she is suing for divorce, will be transferred from the Superior Court at San Diego to Martinez by Attorneys Pierce & Carlson for the defendant. Madden is an old timer here and has some property on Sixteenth street.

BOILED VERBOSITY

To trade, inside vest pocket, for any old thing. The upkeep is high on autos and children. Our frenzied financiers are a lot of dough-nuts. The recent high winds were not all political. Adam and Eve wore a sort of salad dressing. The first disciple of preparedness was Noah. The biscuit is mightier than the cannon ball. These skirts might be termed the height of fashion. Air yourself more and your views less. Separate the innocent bystander from his coin as painlessly as possible. Some fishermen return at dusk and buy a box of sardines. In cold weather one has to do some shimmy dancing, for warmth.

GIVES LIFE FOR FELLOW WORKER

A sad end to her Thanksgiving day came to Mrs. Arthur M. Gibbs on her return from the union Thanksgiving services to her apartment in the Richmond hotel. In the news that during her absence her husband had been killed in an effort to save a fellow workman from death. Gibbs and G. A. Wild, linemen for the Pacific Gas & Electric company, went to work Thursday morning with a crew that was detailed to make repairs to wires that had been blown down by the wind of the previous night. Wild had climbed the pole party, when he groaned and fell backward, hanging by his safety belt, badly burned from contact with a charged wire. Gibbs went at once to his rescue. After he had climbed twenty feet, he accidentally loosened his safety belt in some way and fell instantly to the ground, striking on his head, breaking his neck and crushing his skull. When Dr. Lucas arrived on the scene, he pronounced the man dead. The remains are at the Curry Undertaking Parlor, awaiting word from two brothers in Illinois before arrangements for the funeral can be made.

A ball will be held by the Society Fraternal at the Point Richmond Opera House, December 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Collins have opened a eating house at 2129 Macdonald avenue where the best kind of short orders may be obtained between cars.

A. E. Duckel, a retired capitalist of Martinez, was a Richmond visitor yesterday.

It is a little quiet after the holiday, but in another week the Christmas shopping will be on fast and furious. Do it early, especially if it is to be sent away by post or express.

Yesterday everybody was so full of turkey and innocence nobody wanted to go back to work, and stayed the kids, who had four straight days off.

STORM KILLS LUMBER CO. WORKMAN

Building Falls Upon Bay Point Man—Power Wire Electrocutes Winehaven Electrician—$50,000 Damage to Bay Point Shipyard—Storm Created Havoc Around Bay.

BAY POINT, Nov. 28.—John Baiski, aged about 55 years and employed as a watchman by the Coos Bay Lumber company, was killed on Wednesday night shortly after 10 o'clock when a building fell upon him in the big windstorm that swept this section.

Baiski was found about 11 o'clock by employes of the company. Eight ribs were broken on one side, four on the other and his collar bone was broken. The broken ribs had punctured the lungs and had injured the heart, causing almost instantaneous death. The body is in the morgue at Concord.

The building that fell upon Baiski is a small one used for the accommodation of the watchman and evidently went clear over his body, as it was laying a short distance from him when he was found. He has been in the employ of the company for several years.

$50,000 Damages To Shipyard
BAY POINT, Nov. 28.—The Pacific Gas & Electric company yesterday announced that approximately $50,000 at the yards of the Pacific Coast Shipbuilding company here. Roofs were ripped from buildings and smaller ones were tipped completely over. One boat broke loose from its moorings but was unharmed.

Lumber Company Closes Down
The big plant of the Coos Bay Lumber company is closed for repairs as a result of the damage done by the windstorm when some of the big stacks were blown over.

Fires In Hills
Three camps of fire fighters from the Pacific Gas and Electric company here, battling with racing flames in the hills of Contra Costa county, the aftermath of the hurricane that visited the east bay district.

Launches of the Oakland Launch and Tugboat Company, which were up the wreckage and runaway boats and vessels in the estuary. A steel hull broke loose from the Moore yards. Small boats and several arks, also were carried away. Several thousand feet of lumber were blown from the piers of the Sunset Lumber Company.

The Oakland city electrician is planning to replace 20 per cent of the street lamps blown down in various parts of the city during the storm. The street department is clearing away fallen trees.

Linemen from the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, the Great Western Power company, the P. G. and E. are replacing wires torn down and tangled during the storm.

Roofs Blown Off
In Richmond the principal damage was to roofs of new bungalows. These roofs, in many instances, are of paper, covered with a coat of sand, and dozens of them were blown clear off the buildings and off the face of the earth. No damage was done to shingle roofs, even of the paper shingle variety, as the shingles were nailed on. It is now up to a lot of contractors to make good, as the complaint is loud and widespread.

Fences were blown down and trees and shrubs stripped of their leaves. The troubles were continually blown off the wires, so street car traffic was very efficient and much delayed. Luckily no disastrous fires resulted in Richmond.

Half of the roof of the Princeton Knitting Mills was blown entirely off, showing the sky through the rafters. It was necessary to cover six machines to pick a lot of stones out of the machines and to cover them carefully while the roofers are busy on the roof, which will not be replaced for several days.

Both garages that were nearly completed at the city hall were blown flat onto the lawn, the timbers being scattered about like kindling.

The large sign of the Bradley Real Estate company was lifted bodily and deposited against the 23rd street side of the building. Firemen were busy all day fixing up signs and windows so that they would not fall and injure pedestrians.

MANY RUBBISH FIRES DEMAND ORDINANCE

On account of the prevalence of small fires originating in burning rubbish, Fire Chief Lemoin has decided to ask the Council next Monday night for an ordinance prohibiting the burning of rubbish within the city limits.

A fire started presumably from a carelessly thrown cigarette, between the warehouse and the American store of Bay and the American cafe at 1019 Macdonald avenue. The fire department had to break down the door and tear up part of the floor in "Bever" store to extinguish the fire. The damage was slight.

Boxes and cans and part of a fence in the rear of Burdick's hardware store at 421 Macdonald avenue. Passersby saw what was a mischievous boys started the fire.

Grass fire on the Washington avenue hill was extinguished before the high wind had a chance to blow it near the adjacent homes.

The old shacks adjoining the Manhattan hotel on Garrard boulevard were slightly damaged by fire. The shacks which are owned by George Hiller, have been condemned by the city.

Everyone is urged to watch their chimneys, as many were damaged by the high wind Thursday and are liable to start roof fires.

There was a fire at Twenty-first and Roosevelt avenue Wednesday evening at 8:30.

GARRET AND JOHNSON HAVE FIRST HEARING

"In the mud and scum of things. Something always always sings."

An observer at the preliminary hearing of Bert Garrett and Johnson was struck with fact that the girl's love made her so happy that she was unable to see anything serious in her condition so long as she was able to live in the same world with him.

Virgil Reed, who was robbed by the pair on the afternoon of November 15th, told a clear convincing story of the incident, identifying his watch, the lens stolen from his camera, the revolver used to intimidate him, and showed the spot where the robbery took place on a photograph of his studio.

Inspector W. P. Kyle of Oakland testified to finding the stolen articles in the Coronado apartments in Oakland. He added that in traveling to get a confession from the girl, she stated that she had spent herself a coat and hat at Kahn's.

It was brought out in the evidence that the couple left Richmond in a street car after the robbery. After V. H. Conn had testified to rescuing Reed, the case was closed and the two were bound over to superior court on $10,000 bail.

The printers all get a material raise in wages next week, which for the night office, which pays the highest, means a scale, with a little over time occasionally, which is necessary, of very near $50 a week. This, with the paper house having raised all paper stock fully 300 percent, hits the publisher both going and coming, and hereafter merchants will simply pay a big price for their advertising or musical composition which trains the student in the principles of the art.

Tomatoes and pears are for sale at the Fifth street fire house. There will be no regular sale. Any one who wants some of the food may come at any time during the day and be served until the stock is exhausted.

The music department of the Extension Division at the State University announces the establishment of a series of courses in musical composition which trains the student in the principles of the art.

LARGE AFFAIRS KEEP MANY BUSY

Community Chorus Formed—Many Concerts Planned—Acanthas Give Farewell Banquet To Outgoing Officers—Pythians Still Taking in New Members—Several Other Meetings Last Night.

Considerable impetus was given to Richmond's musical life by the organization last night of the Community Chorus committee with the following officers: Chairman, Mrs. S. J. Hocking; vice-chairman, Mrs. J. E. Gardella; secretary, Miss N. K. Murphy; conductor, Mrs. S. A. Murphy; accompanist, Mrs. Clyde Lott.

An invitation was received to join in the spring musical festival at Sacramento.

Plans were made for a Sunday afternoon Half Hour of Music part of the time to be given to community singing and the remainder to a program by local artists, the effort to be held in Lincoln Auditorium. These are to be free and everyone will be welcome.

An artist of considerable reputation will appear on Sunday, December 7, and another on a Sunday in January.

It is not necessary to be able to read music to join the chorus, the first meeting at which will be held Friday, December 5, at 816 Macdonald avenue. The old popular songs will be tried.

ACANTHAS ENTERTAIN
At a table shaped like the letter E, and decorated with orange and white, 138 members of the Acanthas lodge of the Eastern Star sat down last night to enjoy a wonderful banquet prepared for them by a committee of ladies under the direction of Mrs. Martha Chandler and Thomas Thayer.

The occasion was the annual farewell of the retiring matron and patron of the order and for the entertainment of the Eastbay matrons and patrons. After the banquet, cards and dancing took up the remainder of the evening.

PYTHIANS MEET
Richmond Lodge No. 13, Knights of Pythias, elected four applicants by initiation and one by transfer at its regular convention on Friday night. A large class will receive the Marks in December. Next Friday night, December 5th, a spirited election will be held. There are contests for the offices of Vice-Chancellor, Prelate, Master at Arms, Senior Guard, Outer Guard and Junior Guard.

As nominations are still open, it is being rumored that several dark horses are being groomed and every resident member is invited and expected to be present and vote to the end that a representative body may be had.

On Saturday night, December 6th, Richmond Pythians and their friends will meet at the Shore Park.

An advance sale of tickets is reported and a good time is assured. There will be a fast coronation ball at the Shore Park on Saturday night, December 27th, not sed.

Richmond Lodge of Moose held their regular meeting last night in Moose Hall.

A dance was given by the Yeomen in Moose hall last night.

Richmond Social Service Bureau held their regular monthly meeting in Judge Reth's court room last night, and made reports of the work done during the month.

The editorial family of the News sure did have a happy reunion at the 24 ranch, with turkey for all and lots of good cheer and thankfulness for many blessings. There were ten at table, counting the last baby, which was a drumstick in the air and a dividend of fifty-fifty between internal and external.

Tomatoes and pears are for sale at the Fifth street fire house. There will be no regular sale. Any one who wants some of the food may come at any time during the day and be served until the stock is exhausted.

GOOD PHILOSOPHY

Last year it was easy to be thankful. The whole world was happy perforce. The war was over. There were no more guns and deaths and maimed bodies and ruined towns. The world could breathe and look ahead. This year, the world is in a bitter state of discontent and petty fretting. Every body seems to have his mind on money and luxury, and getting something out of the other fellow. Any nobody is happy.

It is a time to sit down soberly and count one's blessings. It is a time to forget the raise one hasn't got and remember the salary one has. The first Thanksgiving was established to show gratitude for a plentiful harvest. Never was harvest so bounteous as this year. True, we pay heavily for food. But we have the food.—Martinez Gazette.

MEXICAN GETS FIVE SHOTS; WILL LIVE

Renewing a quarrel of long standing, Jesus Hernandez became the target for Augustin Hernandez at the Santa Fe Camp yesterday, with the result that he received five bullets in the left shoulder four of them passing through and out, and the other lodging in the flesh at the head of the shoulder bone.

After the shooting, Augustin ran away, but was picked up in a short time by the police as he was escaping along the Southern Pacific right-of-way. He was lodged in jail on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with the intent to commit murder.

Jesus was taken to Craven hospital, where an X-ray revealed the single bullet in the shoulder. He was attended by Dr. Hely and Dr. U. S. Abbott, who state that he is in no danger from the wound.

STORIES FOR CHILDREN AT PUBLIC LIBRARY

Boys and girls who would like to hear some good stories can do so by going to the Public Library at 3 o'clock today.

There they will hear "The Story of the First Corn," from Hiawatha, and "Androcles and the Lion." Everybody who likes a story is welcome.

Harry Ellis went to Martinez Wednesday in connection with a realty deal.

Judge Odell's was the scene of a gathering of friends for Thanksgiving dinner. Those present were the Odells, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Stidham, Miss Stockwell, Miss Genevieve McConnell and A. Odell.

G. D. Richardson, Mrs. C. A. Odell's father, is slightly improved at the home of his daughter.

Dr. and Mrs. Lucas dined at Tait's on Thanksgiving with friends from San Francisco.

Through the intervention of Judge Odell, Mrs. Katherine Kramer received an interdictory decree of divorce from Joseph Kramer yesterday on the ground of extreme cruelty.

Monday is the last day for paying taxes.

One hundred palefaces will be sent through the various degrees at the big pow wow of the Redmen to be held here tonight. Pinole, Crockett and Martinez all bring candidates.

Suffering In Midwest
CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Cold weather, with snow and sleet storms, today had spread over the central and southwest and rendered more critical the fuel situation brought about by the twenty-eight days' strike of bituminous coal miners. In many small cities and towns the coal shortage was acute, with actual suffering in prospect.

THE NEWS DOES JOB WORK.

GOVERNMENT WILL SEIZE MINES

Coal Barons To Be Disciplined and Workers Protected—Much Suffering From Cold and Lack of Fuel—Industries Closing and Railroads Badly Hampered.

The coal situation is taking an acute turn and the Cabinet has resolved to act. The wage increase offered by the Government will be enforced upon the operators and the mines of those who refuse to comply will be seized and operated by the government.

It turns out that the demands of the miners are not what has been understood by the public, and that the "Coal Barons" are responsible for the misconception. It was given out by the Associated Press that patches that under the demands of the miners the production of coal would be curtailed one-third. This is untrue, and there appears to be some kind of an understanding between those responsible for untrue statements being sent out and those who own the coal mines.

When the miners demanded a five-day week and a six-hour day, the people generally were impressed with the idea that they did not desire to work when the truth is, as it now leaks out, that in reality they were demanding more work instead of less work. A five-day week and six-hour day is really constituted more work than they have been given by the operators, who have for years kept them on short shifts and kept down production purposely for the purpose of keeping up prices.

The decision of the government authorities just arrived at is outlined in the following dispatch: WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Selling of bituminous coal mines where the owners do not show a disposition to co-operate in increasing production, and use of troops to protect all miners who desire to work, has been decided upon by the government in an effort to end the bituminous coal strike. It was stated today officially.

In mines seized by the government the 14 per cent wage advance agreed upon by the cabinet will be put into immediate effect, it was said.

These plans of the government were agreed upon by the cabinet last Wednesday, officials said, so as to meet the situation resulting from a refusal of the operators or miners, or both, to agree to the government's wage increase proposal.

Cabinet officers expected many mine owners to put into effect voluntarily the 14 per cent wage increase. Whether the mines of those refusing to do so would be seized was not made clear, but it was said there was no contract plan for government control; that each individual case would be decided on its merits.

PEOPLE HAVE BEEN ROBBED ENOUGH

It is probable that the government will take charge of the coal mines and dictate all prices from the mine to the consumer, allowing a reasonable profit only. If the scheme works well will the people of the country ever allow themselves to be robbed by the coal barons again? No one has a right to monopolize a common necessity and amass millions out of the needs of the poor. If the war has taught us a better and fairer system the people ought to insist that such system be continued. Treat the big interests fairly. Give them a reasonable profit, and then hold them to it. When the public discovers that it doesn't have to be fleeced by the railroads, the coal barons, the big packers, the food gamblers, the grain speculators, and the steel trust, the paper trust, the oil trust and the thousand and one other big combines, that is going to be a new day for the United States of America. When you vote for a candidate for congress next time don't vote for a man simply because he wants to go, or because he can make a spread-eagle speech. Don't vote for a man because he belongs to some particular party. There are just as many slippery eels in one party as in another. There isn't a cent's worth of difference. But vote for a man who is sound and honest along these important lines; who will not let all the grabbers and grafters slip back into their old places now the war is over.

SPEAKING OF ADVERTISING

All the great and most successful business men in America are liberal advertisers, and for a little local merchant to set his opinion up against the biggest and best business men of the whole country and hold to the contrary, simply proves why he is a small business man.

There is no argument whatever as to the proposition that it pays to advertise. It is also true the more you advertise within proper limit, of course, the more it pays.

Every business man should make a study of this branch of his business, the same as he should study any other branch, and if he does not do it he is doing himself an injustice, and is not a good business man.

An appropriation should be made for an advertising expense account, just the same as one is made for clerk hire, rent or any other necessary expense of carrying on a successful business. The necessary expense of carrying on a successful business should be made in the manner to produce results.

And speaking of producing results, the first thing to consider is the medium used. Newspaper advertising is conceded by all to be the best method by far—there is no longer any argument about that. Then the question arises: Which newspaper, or what kind of a newspaper? That is easily answered by looking around you and sizing up the kind of community in which you are doing business. If it is a certain kind of community, it is a safe bet that the people take and read the certain kind of newspaper that represents that kind of community, whatever it may be.

HAS HE CHANGED HIS MIND?

The recent utterances of Samuel Gompers would indicate that he may have changed his mind during the past year. Here is what he said about Socialism a year ago:

"I want to tell you Socialists that I have studied your philosophy; read your works upon economics, and not the meanest of them; studied your standard works, both English and German. I have not only read but studied them. I have heard your orators and watched the work of your movement the world over. I have kept close watch upon your doctrines for thirty years; have closely associated with many of you and know how to think and what to propose.

"I know, too, what you have up your sleeve. And I want to say that I am entirely at variance with your philosophy. I declare it to you, I am not only at variance with your doctrine, but with your philosophy. Economically, you are unsound; socially, you are wrong; industrially, you are an impossibility."

CHRISTIANITY PAYS

Religion is getting to be a business proposition. The religion that we refer to is the brand that has real Christianity in it. There is only one system in the world that pays, and that consists in being decent, fair, charitable, liberal, industrious, progressive and helpful. These things constitute the foundation of Christianity. Christianity is not a bargain counter commodity. You can't buy it at any price when the price consists of gold. It is as free to the humblest washer-woman in the land as it is to the millionaire. When we get so we can distinguish between theology and Christianity we will have made a big step.

THINKOGRAPHS

About the finest person in the world is any nice old lady.

Being raked over the coals is like coarse rough food; you need it.

Every man would like to be rich enough to defy an alarm clock.

The mere fact that you disagree with the preacher is no sign you are broad-minded.

A good deal of rough talk doesn't mean anything but bad manners.

You are threatened with a good deal more than ever happens to you.

There are so many ways of wasting money it is a wonder so many manage to save something.

A man is as old as he feels, and a woman is as old as her photograph taken 15 years ago.

The trade pie that used to go to market seems to be roasting around cold storage plants nowadays.

Why pay $10 for a $2 silk shirt and then cover it all up with a coat and vest except about a nickel's worth?

A strategic retreat is about the best a man can hope for who engages in conflict with a woman.

One finds a great deal of earnestness at prayer meetings and poker games, and also some fourflushing at both.

Economy can be carried too far, and no one should try to be saving of soap and handkerchiefs.

The administration has our permission to hit those coal barons so hard and knock them so far that their eyebrows would come back by mail.

Men find a lot of fault with feminine fashions, but manage to admire most of the women who wear them.

The discovery of the hook worm may have been an important scientific achievement, but it didn't seem to go very far toward eliminating shiftlessness from this home of the brave.

Smart looking young men in form-fitting clothes come around quite often to tell we older chaps how to run our business with more efficiency, but somehow we don't seem to learn much. Guess we are a hopeless lot and beyond redemption.

Denmark wants to borrow 120,000,000 crowns. Most fellows who had only one crown have been hunting tall timber of late years, including Mr. Hohenzollern who thought he was in partnership with Diety, and we don't see what anybody wants with such a job lot as all that. Must be something rotten in Denmark.

TWO LOCAL MEN PRAISE Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Bullock says:
"I am for the Y. M. C. A. in Richmond in order to meet the long recognized and expressed need for such an institution for our boys and men. It represents in its long and useful history, present equipment and organization and future aims and ideals one of the best means that can be offered the people of our city in producing an environment conducive to good character and ideal citizenship."
"I want it for my neighbors' boys to supplement their home training by taking care of their leisure hours so fraught with possibilities of good or evil."
"The motto—the triangle of body, mind and spirit—ministering to the physical, intellectual and religious nature—thus producing a well rounded man."

Superintendent H. W. Lunceford says:
"The Y. M. C. A. stands for that which is beneficial to human life, it is for our spiritual, intellectual and physical welfare, and with their long and successful experience, educators along these lines it is only natural that we look to them to procure beneficial results in our community."

If it's a Battery Be Sure It's New

It isn't good business to buy a battery that may be months old when you get it.

The only safe thing to do is to buy a Willard Battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation that has been shipped and stored bone dry, and consequently is brand new when it begins to work for you.

Drop in some time and let us explain this process to you and tell you why it is only possible with Threaded Rubber Insulation.

There Wouldn't Be So Many Classified Ads Printed if They Did Not Mean Anything to YOU!

If you have never given earnest attention to the classified ads it is certain that you have missed some opportunities which were almost made-to-order for YOU.

Why not determine to learn FOR YOURSELF what the classified ads mean to you?

There are two ways. One is to advertise in the classified columns—for whatever you may need. The other is to read AND ANSWER classified ads—to investigate those that seem to offer something TO YOU. You'll be surprised to learn how many of these little ads DO TALK BUSINESS TO YOU—how many of them seem to point to opportunities for you.

Some of your friends and acquaintances are using the classified columns of the News regularly. Some of them have found profitable investments in real estate through them; some have found good positions; some have bought and sold used articles.

You're living in a town where people accomplish things through the classified ads. WHY DON'T YOU?

Local Laconics Of Richmondites

Chas. Perella, who was injured in an auto accident several weeks ago, died at the Roosevelt hospital Tuesday morning. He was buried at Sunset View Cemetery Thursday morning.

H. D. Mack and D. J. Gross are looking for a location in which to open a baby furnishing store.

Three gangs of fire fighters from the Pacific Gas & Electric Company are still battling with raging flames in the hills of Contra Costa county, south of the tunnel road, the aftermath of the hurricane.

One hundred Royal Arch Masons gave a turkey dinner Wednesday evening and initiated three candidates. Visitors from Oakland, Berkeley and Fruitvale were present.

Charles Lowgren of Albany ran into some guy wires at Twenty-third and Macdonald avenue Thursday morning on his way home from Winchaven, badly wrecking his machine.

Our charge accounts are not expensive things

Not even to us. Certainly not to our customers. Of course, once in a blue moon someone forgets to pay a bill and moves to Montana—but accidents WILL happen. We don't think of charging these slight losses to our other customers any more than if our delivery wagon broke down we'd charge them for the repairs. And compared to our customers' convenience and their appreciation of this service of ours the so-called "cost" of carrying credit accounts is nothing at all. Prove it for yourself. Come into our store and see whether our prices are higher than in stores which will not give you credit. Then consider all the other services we perform for you in addition. Deliveries, telephone service, expert salesmen, the best groceries and provisions we can buy. And the benefit of our thorough knowledge of the grocery business. We know the reliable brands and we tell you about them. For example there is RYZON Baking Powder. When the General Chemical Company placed RYZON on the market we were eager to try it. They called the "Perfect Baking Powder" and once we tested it we knew why. It is 40c per full pound. Ask us about the RYZON Baking Book of 200 tried recipes—they're the best we've ever used.

VIOLA DANA SHOWS CURLS IN "MICROBE"

Dainty Viola Dana sacrificed her beautiful chestnut curls in the cause of art when she undertook the stellar role in "The Microbe," the appealing Metro drama pictured by June Mathis from Henry Altimus's Ainslee's Magazine story in which the little star will be seen at the Richmond Theatre today.

Miss Dana's ringlets were much in evidence in "Satan Junior" and "Blue Jeans," but they had no place in "The Microbe" so Viola just made a little very smile of regret and snipped them off. Some of the early incidents in her newest photoplay called for Miss Dana to appear in boy's clothing, wearing a cap. Hence the bobbed hair.

But the beauty of it is that the tiny star is even cuter, in the opinion of her director, Henry Otto, than she was when her curls fell over her shoulders.

It is reported that arrests will be made in this city in a few days by the federal government of those who have been selling liquor contrary to the provisions of the war time dry act.

Woman Ends Her Suffering

SEVEN YEARS OF PAIN IS STOPPED BY SING HERBS

After suffering agony for seven years, spending the greater part of the time in bed, Miss Hebe Stewart, an Oakland woman, found relief in the Sing herb treatments. For the information of the public she writes:

November 1, 1919.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
I suffered with chronic inflammation of the fallopian tubes, which formed a mass on the left side and suffered from this for seven years. I went to seven American doctors and each one said the tubes would have to be removed. I have been treating with Dr. Sing for two months and the inflammation is entirely gone. I feel better than I have for seven years, during much of the time I was bedridden.
